The Construction India Forum – Madurai Edition successfully concluded on 24th March 2026 at Courtyard by Marriott, Madurai convening key stakeholders from across the construction ecosystem to explore the future of design and infrastructure in India.

The forum brought together a dynamic mix of industry professionals including architects, real estate developers, contractors, consultants, and technology specialists, enabling rich conversations, fresh perspectives, and meaningful knowledge exchange.

Set against the backdrop of Madurai's rapidly evolving infrastructure landscape, the event served as a powerful platform to address the growing need for technology-driven construction practices, collaboration, and sustainable development.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS :

- BIM is becoming essential for modern construction practices
- Digital adoption is key to faster, smarter project delivery
- Collaboration across stakeholders drives better project outcomes
- Tier-2 cities like Madurai are emerging as infrastructure growth centers

The event featured impactful insights from industry leaders, highlighting India's shift from traditional design approaches to BIM-led project delivery and connected digital ecosystems. Sharing his valuable perspectives on the evolving infrastructure landscape Chief Guest S.R. Muthuvijayan, President , CREDAI Madurai highlighted the importance of innovation and collaboration in shaping India's infrastructure growth.

Panel discussion on “Unlocking Design Potential: The Future of BIM Adoption in India's Infrastructure Landscape” brought together industry experts to discuss how BIM is enhancing efficiency, coordination, and project outcomes

A hands-on session demonstrating Autodesk's ecosystem, showcased how integrated tools enable seamless workflows, better collaboration, and improved project visibility—driving future-ready infrastructure development.

With this, the event concluded on a highly engaging note, enabling meaningful dialogue and collaboration that extended well beyond the formal sessions.
